How To Order

Our managers are catering specialists. Call your nearest location and ask to speak to a manager; they will be happy to assist you with the ordering process.

Ask Us

If you have any questions or need advice on ordering or planning for your event our store managers are able to assist. Our managers are planning experts.

When To Order

We always prefer to have orders in as far in advance as possible. Same day orders are always accepted. Some items require 24 hour advanced notice to prepare. If you have any questions, the store managers are always available to help. Orders placed in advance are always able to be modified if you have changes to make.

Delivery

Delivery service on all orders is always available during normal hours of operation for each location. If you need a delivery outside of normal store hours; with advance notice we are happy to accommodate. Our delivery personnel will deliver, unpack and setup your order.

There is no minimum required for delivery. Delivery charge varies based on order size. The store manager can discuss this in more detail upon ordering.

All items are delivered hot, fresh and ready to eat. We will provide utensils to serve; plates and napkins.
